COMIC RELIEF ISSUE

OK, before I say anything listen to this letter: "Dear Flipside, I haven't read all of your latest issue (the one with the bald Minutemen on the cover) but yet I have some suggestions. You have only one cartoon in this one!! What gives? Please! Cartoons help to break up the monotony of all these tons of band interviews! I realize that D. Worden has gone on to greater things and Tomaselli is probably the next Panter since G.P.'s hit the sludge but shit - there are lots of aspiring cartoonists. I even like the ones you can hardly read or understand and look like they're drawn by 5 year olds. Anyway, it adds a certain rhythm - please don't go sour on cartoons. The ad art is great - but an ad is an ad. And Hud I totally agree with you idea that you can't be held responsible for some ideas some dumb little fucker gets from reading cartoons that you print. I don't think cartoons have to have social conscience other than to be funny. Most cartoons are a parody of what they are portraying anyway. Most people are too dumb to know it. I just wanted to put my 2 cents worth in about that issue. signed Roger"

Well what do you know! We've probably blown it but here it is - an entire issue full of cartoons!!!! There's even Dennis Worden who has come back from "greater things" and Fred Tomaselli who despite his busy schedual trying to become a for real bum, has managed to give us some real great pages. We even has famous people like Pettibon (tho him and Tomaselli did not draw any dicks!!!! Don't be disappointed!). Some of the other people featured are Pushead - that guy who did the hardcore report for Thrasher Skate Mag, John Crawford who has given Baboon Dooley to the world, Bobby Ray who has regularly been doing Skinhead Knows Best, Robert Moore of Noise fanzine fame and Charred Remains creator, Doug & Lee of Discust Ink has contributed their usual ultra-violence, there's Shawn Kerry probably best known for her Skank Man the Circle Jerks use and last but not least is the gruesome work of Master Mad Marc Rude from San Diego. Those are the features that include short bio's. Just to make Roger happy we have included a bunch of cartoons that you will have trouble both reading and understanding from various people all across the country. We also have a special collaboration of talent from one Mr. Gary Panter who needs no introduction and Matt Groening that guy with all the insight from the L.A. Reader. There you have it, simple comic relief. But ah, you say we missed some important people. We know that, but this was really not an attempt to include everyone (I think we did a pretty good job tho). Maybe if we do another one of these you'll see people like John Holstrom, the guy who draws the Ramones all the time, he certainly could be in here, or maybe James from Agent Orange or any of a number of the great cartoon illustrators all across the country (Jeff J. where are you?). So that's the disclaimer, now enjoy!!!!

THIS EDITION OF FLIPSIDE WAS COMPILED BY AL, WITH THE HELP OF GUS HUD AND HUDLEY HUD. BACK ISSUES OF FLIPSIDE ARE $1.50 EACH AND WE HAVE NUMBERS 21, 24, 28, 30, 31 AND 32!!! SUBSCRIPTIONS ARE $4.00 FOR 4 ISSUES DOMESTIC AND $12.00 FOR 4 ISSUES OVERSEAS. WRITE US AT: P. O. BOX 363 WHITTIER, CA 90608

Who's Buddy Holly?
I dunno

You Don't know who Buddy Holly is? He WAS ONE OF THE GIANTS OF EARLY ROCK 'N' Roll. He's My Hero. He influenced THE BEATLES EVEN!

BUT AS HE SLAMS, HIS WIG GETS TORN OFF.

"LOOK, A HIPPIY!"

BUT AS THE PUNKS THRASH ON THE HIPPIY, their wigs come off. They are hippies, too!

Illustration of a crowd of people with wigs being torn off.

Well, if we lower heads of a.m. He must suck!

There's no use trying to talk to you guys. You don't know ANYTHING about Rock 'n' Roll, And don't want to know.

You WANNA fight?
No. You guys are doing more harm to yourself with your music. Than I could do in a fight.

Well, EVERYBODY ELSE IS DOING IT!
